NEW YORK CITY THREATENED WITH A SYMPATHETIC STRIKE

DISASTER MARS WORK OF ENGINEERING FEAT; TOLL OF LIFE HEAVY

Quebec, Sept. 11.—The central span of the world's greatest bridge collapsed and fell into the St. Lawrence river today, with loss of life variously estimated.

The company erecting the structure placed the number of deaths at upwards of twenty-five, but H. P. Borden, a member of the Quebec Bridge Commission, expressed the opinion that only three persons were killed. Several hours after the accident happened at 10:30 o'clock a special train into Quebec brought twenty men who had been injured.

Nine years ago a similar accident at the same spot took a toll of 70 lives. Today 90 men were carried into the river when the five thousand ton span, being raised from pontoons in an engineering feat designed to complete the $17,000,000 cantilever suspension for trans-continental railway traffic, plunged a distance of fifteen feet into the water and sank 200 feet, perhaps never to be recovered.

Contradictory stories were told regarding the collapse. The pontoons had been removed and the span was being lifted by massive hydraulic jacks when, according to some of the spectators, the northern end of the span fell with the break of girders. Some of the observers said that the structure broke at the center as it fell. Groups of men at work slipped off into the water and others were thrown into space by flying debris. Scores of craft containing spectators, went to the rescue and their endeavors saved a larger loss of life.

Chief Engineer McMillan was among the injured brought here. He was rescued by a tug. Five bodies have been recovered. Edward Jordan, 22, of Providence, R. I., is among the known dead.

The engineer in charge of construction whose name is Porter; James Anderson, a blacksmith; Alfred Cadoret, who is badly hurt and Arthur Cadoret are among the survivors.

Span Weighed Over Five Thousand Tons

The bridge was being constructed at a cost of $17,000,000 in order to shorten the railway journey from Halifax to the Canadian Northwest by 200 miles.

The bridge stands on the site of the structure which collapsed on August 29, 1907, with a loss of seventy lives.

The central span which fell today weighs more than five thousand tons and is 640 feet long.

The collapse occurred when the span was about fifteen feet in the air.

Observers said that the span broke in two places—first one of the girders appeared to give way, this followed almost immediately by a break in the center.

Boats Rushed To The Rescue

Boats from among the hundreds of craft on which spectators gathered were rushed to the spot where the span disappeared.

GOVERNMENT IS PROBING PROPOSED BREAD ADVANCE

Washington, Sept. 11.—The administration is seriously concerned over the bread situation and views with alarm the threat of bakers to increase the price of the loaf.

Government investigations are already in progress, and it is believed here that criminal prosecutions will result if the price of bread actually is increased and two facts can be established. These are: That there is no economic justification for the increase and that the bakers have acted in association.

An official said today there must be an investigation and the facts of it detailed to the public so the public, by the weight of its expressed opinion, may frown down any attempt to increase unjustly the price of bread.

The Federal Trade Commission, through Chairman E. N. Hurley, has been making an investigation of the economic phases of the question.

It is understood also that the matter has been brought to the attention of the Department of Justice and that its agents have been at work on it for some time.

Agreements Held

It is stated that if there was an agreement among bakers to increase the price of bread it would be equivalent to a conspiracy and that they could be prosecuted either under the common law or the anti-trust act.

Two natural causes for a possible increase in the price of bread are seen by some authorities here. It was said the great demand for wheat has been for armies, thus lessening the supply of this country. The other cause is the reduction of this year's wheat crop, which is said to be approximately 20 per cent less than last year's crop.

Offsetting this argument, however, is the report of the Department of Agriculture, which, while estimating the wheat crop at 611,000,000 bushels, of 9,000,000 less than is calculated to be necessary for domestic use, says that a carry-over of approximately 160,000,000 bushels of old wheat from last year's record-breaking crop, will make up the deficiency and leave something like 100,000,000 bushels available to supply the heavy demand of foreign nations for American wheat.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—Manufacturers of bread and others engaged in the baking trade were questioned by Charles F. Glyne, United States district attorney today, in connection with the baker's threat to advance the price of bread from 5 to 6 cents a loaf.

S. F. McDonald, of Memphis, Tennessee president of the National Association of Master Bakers, which last week passed resolutions recommending an advance in the price of bread, asserted he would voluntarily give the government all possible information on the subject.

Housewives To Assist

Chicago, Sept. 11.—Housewives of Chicago were today urged to weigh the bread they buy to assist the city department of weights and measures in watching local bakers for violations of the anti-trust laws and the ordinance against short weights.

The request came from William P. Cluett, in charge of this part of the department, who announced that he would have a corps of inspectors scattered over Chicago today to test the weights of loaves.

The announcement by a leading baking concern Saturday that for several days it had been out of business.

Mrs. Sanger To Establish Birth Control Clinics

New York—Mrs. Margaret Sanger, whose trial on a charge of disseminating birth control literature, created a stir all over the country a few months ago, has announced plans to open up birth control clinics in New York and Brooklyn.

Dr. Frederick Blossom, former manager of the Associated Charities of Cleveland, will have charge of the work here. Mrs. Sanger has just returned from a coast to coast lecture tour and says that the fifteen birth control leagues which she founded in various cities are growing in numbers and influence.

Regarding her plans, here, she said: "I expect that the police will try to prevent us from helping the wives of poor workmen to limit the size of their families, so therefore we are going to start quietly and collect statistics to present to the next session of the legislature in this state which will horrify them, and I am sure that they will repeal the law now on the books of this state prohibiting the dissemination of birth control knowledge."

San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 11.—Scouts of the American army in Mexico, have penetrated the Santa Clara Canyon in search of Francisco Villa's marauding band and have not found it there. This was the substance of a message received today by General Funston from General Pershing who said he believed Villa was in the vicinity of San Andres, about 35 miles west of Chihuahua City.

General Pershing did not say so, but it is believed here that the American scouts must have been supported by at least a small force as the canyon is more than fifty miles south of the southernmost American lines.

It is not thought an insignificant patrol would have taken a chance on encountering the Villa band without the assurance of adequate support.

This is the first indication in many weeks that General Pershing's men have been operating at any distance from their base. General Pershing reported that in the section traversed the natives professed not to have seen or heard of Villa.

Ed Stahl, who has been troubled with blood poisoning, the result of cutting his hand, is much better.

DEATHS FROM EPIDEMIC EXCEED TWO THOUSAND

New York, Sept. 11.—Twenty-three more deaths from infantile paralysis in this city occurred during the 48 hours ending at 10 a. m. today, according to a department of health bulletin. This brings the total of fatalities up to 2,123 since the inception of the epidemic.

Today's bulletin recorded 66 new cases. The average of new cases for the two days covered in the report, is smaller than the number mentioned in Saturday's bulletin covering Friday.

SNOW! Colorado's first snow of the season is falling at Leadville today, according to reports to the local weather bureau. The precipitation began last night and amounts to nearly one inch.

Yaqui Indians Slay Chinese During Raid

Nogales, Ariz., Sept. 11.—Yaqui raided Santa Barbara Sonora, twenty miles southeast of here yesterday, killing fifteen Chinamen, according to reports received today at the commandancia in Nogales, Sonora.

Nation-Wide Interest Centers In The Maine Election Held Today

Portland, Me., Sept. 11.—Voters of Maine to the number of 140,000 or more went to the polls today to elect a governor, two U. S. Senators, four representatives in congress, a state legislature and a state auditor.

National issues have been brought to the fore and party leaders brought hundreds of speakers into the state, including former Justice Hughes, former vice president Fairbanks and members of President Wilson's cabinet to persuade voters to line up with or against the national executive and the majority in congress.

Maine, however, is a normally Republican state and the Democratic leaders insisted that something more than a scant Republican victory would be required to constitute a Republican chance of winning the national administration while a Democratic victory, however small, would be accepted by them as an endorsement.

Reports at noon from various parts of the state indicated that a heavy vote had been cast. Two of the purpose and intention of organized capital."

President Wilson, head of the Interborough and "Green Car" surface systems, replied to this by saying:

"Labor organizers came here to organize this town and if they succeed they will do this city just what the railroad brotherhoods did to the government."

Wilson Hurries To The Bedside Of His Stricken Sister

Long Branch, Sept. 11.—Canceling all engagements, President Wilson left here early today to go to the bedside of his sister, Mrs. A. E. Howe, who is critically ill at her home in New London, Conn. The president motored to New York and will finish the trip by train.

The president arose before 7 o'clock after having spent a restless night. He appeared greatly concerned over his sister's illness. The departure of the president did not delay the opening today of the summer executive offices at Ashbury Park by a staff of White House clerks.

New London, Conn., Sept. 11.—Mrs. Annie E. Howe, President Wilson's sister, who is critically ill of peritonitis and complications here, passed a comfortable night, but is growing weaker, according to a statement issued today by Dr. H. M. Lee, the attending physician.

The trial is expected to be long drawn out as more than 100 witnesses have been called.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 11.—Warren K. Billings, who is said to have planted the bomb that was exploded along the line of march of the preparedness parade here July 22, resulting in the death of 10 persons, was to be placed on trial today. Four other indicted suspects are to be tried later.

A mass meeting was held last night to raise funds for Billings' defense. It was arranged by Robert Minor, of New York, acting as the representative of the International Workers Defense League.

The trial is expected to be long drawn out as more than 100 witnesses have been called.

SITUATION SERIOUS IN GOTHAM

New York, Sept. 11.—With the leaders of 750,000 labor men of Greater New York and vicinity threatening a sympathetic strike, traffic on the subway and elevated lines in Manhattan and the Bronx impeded, and the surface systems in those two boroughs and West Chester county virtually tied up, the general strike situation assumed a more serious aspect today.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, declined to discuss the probability of a general strike but union leaders asserted that, if necessary, fifty thousand union men could be called out within six hours.

Traction officials attributed the falling off in service on the subway and elevated roads to the unprecedented increase in traffic caused by the stoppage of all the surface lines.

Union leaders claimed, however, that the defection of heretofore loyal employees of the roads was responsible.

"Clash Between Unions and Capital"

William B. Fitzgerald, general organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Electric and Street Railway Employees who is conducting the strike, in a statement issued today asserted that the "effort" of local traction interests to destroy the "union" is a forerunner of a movement by capital to crush organized labor throughout the country.

"President Wilson just enacted into law the principle of the eight-hour day," Fitzgerald said. "Organized capital does not intend that such legislation shall remain on the statute books. The struggle in this city is only a symptom of the purpose and intention of organized capital."

President Wilson, head of the Interborough and "Green Car" surface systems, replied to this by saying:

"Labor organizers came here to organize this town and if they succeed they will do this city just what the railroad brotherhoods did to the government."

Cornerstone Laid Of The New Sciotoville Church

Impressive ceremonies marked the laying of the cornerstone of the new Sciotoville M. E. church on Main street in that village Sunday afternoon, the majority of the membership being present at the exercises conducted under the leadership of Rev. L. L. Magee, district M. E. pastor, and Rev. George H. Creamer, pastor of the church. The new church built of tapestry brick is to cost when completed about $12,000 and the membership expects to be in their new building about the Christmas holidays.

Services were held in the present frame church in the rear of the site of the new house of worship, before the laying of the cornerstone. Members were present from the Christian and Baptist churches, of Sciotoville, also Rev. H. J. Dudley, new pastor of the Christian church.

After the congregation rendered "Rock of Ages" with Mrs. Charles Lanting as accompanist, Rev. L. L. Magee led in prayer. Rev. Magee then delivered a forty minute sermon on "The Cornerstone." At the close of Rev. Magee's sermon Rev. George H. Creamer, who has been pastor of the Sciotoville M. E. church for several months, made a short explanatory talk on the hard work of the members in starting the building fund for the new church. Rev. Creamer then made a call for contributions and soon over $500 had been pledged.

Addison Taylor, leader of the Men's Bible class of the church, then gave a short history of the Sciotoville M. E. church from 1838 till the present time. Rev. James Taylor and family, of New York, settled near the mouth of the Little Scioto river shortly before 1838. Sciotoville at this time was a receiving point for pig iron. On one of the boats used for a wharfboat Rev. Taylor started a revival which ended in the conversion of 200 souls and the beginning of the Sciotoville M. E. church. This was in 1838 and shortly afterwards the church was organized. A site for a church, the present site, was decided to the church trustees June 16, 1842, but the deed was not official until 1845. Madison Price and wife gave the ground for the church. A frame building was erected in 1842 and it served as a house of worship until 1868 when it was moved to the rear of the lot. This old building is now the lower part of the fast decaying two story frame house standing in the rear of the present church.

The frame building, erected in 1868, was dedicated by Rev. Stephen W. Merrill, who before that time was pastor of Sixth Street M. E. church, Portsmouth.

Rev. L. L. Magee, Rev. Creamer, Rev. Dudley and the trustees, Carl Brant, Robert Dever, Alfred Winters, Charles Mougey, Carey Walden and Earl Nourse set the stone in place. Rev. Magee gave a short prayer at the close of the ceremony.

The new church built of brick is 100 feet long and 36 feet wide. There will be a basement under the entire building. The Sunday school rooms will be in the rear part of the church in a room 40 feet long and 36 feet wide. Earl Nourse is doing the brick laying and George Lemon the carpenter work. Rev. ## Loan Advantages

10. You can pay your loan in full at any time. With our DEFINITE CONTRACT PLAN you can always do this. With a straight loan you cannot always do this. This feature is of great value if you should want to sell and the buyer should want to pay cash. Straight loans are some times sold to outside parties and this causes many inconveniences. Our loans are never sold and you will always find us at our place of business during business hours and we will assist wherever we can.

DOROTHY GISH in "THE LITTLE SCHOOL MA'AM"

the very latest TRIANGLE PLAY, takes you back to your boyhood days when bare-footed you tramped the lane to the little red school, or as a shy maid brought wild flowers to the village school teacher.

You'll enjoy this picture more than any you've seen in many a long day, for it brings back the spirit of youth—of the days when there were no cares or worries.

You'll love the twenty little TRIANGLE kiddies at work and at play, and you'll love the sweet romance of the dainty village school ma'am—still young and pretty.

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Sept. 11.—Last week's bullish activity was again in evidence today, prices of virtually all issues making further gains, with sales far in excess of a million shares.

Heading was the only striking exception to the rising tendency on the resumption of trading today other leaders and speculative favorites mounting above last week's final quotations.

Headline's reversal of 2 1/2 points was soon largely recovered, however, while copper, independent steels, equipments and the paper issues registered gains extending from fractions to 3 points.

United States Steel opened with 10,000 shares up to 40 3/4, or within a fraction maintained last Saturday.

Shipping shares were represented by Marine preferred and Atlantic Gulf and West Indies, the latter at new record.

Apert from enormous trading, which extended 300,000 shares, the feature of the forenoon was the absolute neglect and relative heaviness of rails. Heading was the only issue of that group to show any prominence, even under pressure, other investment issues being engulfed in the bewildering movement of speculation in other parts of the list.

Minor stocks of the non-dividend class participated in the rise, but steel, which repeated its record price of 10 1/2, and Marine preferred, which broke all records at 15 1/2, were the conspicuous features.

Metals, Mexicans and some equipments and munitions were 2 to 3 points higher. Bonds were irregular.

Stocks were at highest levels in the last hour. Industrials leading, with steel at a new high and rails making up some of their lost ground. The closing was strong.

PROSECUTOR TO PROBE INCREASE IN BREAD PRICE

Upon the receipt of a deluge of complaints from local citizens Monday concerning the announcement of several Portsmouth and New Boston bakers that the price of bread and cakes would be advanced in price after a certain date, Prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Micklethwait stated that "it is purely illegal and the statutes of Ohio make it a penal offense, subject to a heavy fine and a penitentiary sentence."

Should the advance be made effective, the prosecutor said that an investigation would be made by the grand jury which will be called sometime this month.

The attention of the prosecutor was called to a signed advertisement appearing in The Times in which it was stated that the price of bread and cakes would be advanced. This constitutes a combination, the prosecutor holds under the statutes, and a violation will be prosecuted.

The following statement was made by Prosecutor Micklethwait:

"A great number of complaints have come to me in regard to the action of the bakers raising the price of bread. If the bakers are not making a profit, as they claim they are not, then it is their individual right to raise the price of bread as individuals, but not to meet as an association and raise, or attempt to raise, the price of bread and by going together still competition."

"It will be recalled a few years ago the milk men here were indicted and tried before the local common pleas court, but in that case the action failed because the state could not prove that they had agreed together to raise the price of milk, but had taken such action individually.

"As I understand it the bakers at a meeting held at a certain local bakery one day last week, agreed that on Monday, September 11th, certain bread that heretofore sold at five cents a loaf, would be retailed at six cents and in pursuance of this agreement, a signed statement or advertisement was inserted in the paper, stating that on this particular date they would raise the price of certain bread. This, as I understand it, is in clear violation of the anti-trust laws of this state, and I shall call the attention of the court to the matter and ask Judge Thomas to give a special charge to the grand jury covering this matter.

The statutes upon which the prosecutor bases his opinion are:

Section 6391 of the General Code, is as follows:

"A trust is a combination of capital, skill or acts by two or more persons, firms, partnerships, corporations or associations of persons, for any or all of the following purposes:

"To make, enter into, or carry out contracts, obligations or agreements of any kind or description by which they bind or have bound themselves not to sell . . . a commodity, or an article of trade . . . below a common standard, figure or fixed value. . . . a commodity, so as directly or indirectly to preclude a free and unrestricted competition among themselves, purchasers or consumers in the sale . . . of such article or commodity. . . . Such trust as is defined herein is unlawful, against public policy and void.

Section 6395 of the chapter provides, . . . that when the violation of the provisions of this chapter consists of a combination to control the price or supply, or to prevent competition in the sale of bread, butter, eggs, flour, meat or vegetables or any one of said articles, the person or persons thus engaged shall upon conviction thereof be fined in any sum not less than five hundred dollars and imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years. Each day's violation of any of the provisions of this chapter shall constitute a separate offense.

This law was enacted by the Legislature on May 3, 1913.

Accused Of Stealing Beer; Police News

For young men giving the names of (John Foster, John Treat, "Butter" Fillmore and Harold Phillips were arrested at Front and Washington streets early Sunday morning, charged with petit larceny. They were accused of stealing a basket of beer which same man named Boydston had left in the doorway of Kolsa's saloon on Chillicothe street, while he stepped inside to buy a cigar. ## Vouchers Are Paid; Almost A Stampede

There was almost a stampede at the court house Monday morning when the offices of County Auditor S. D. Eckhart was opened. A number of citizens holding vouchers for work done during the administration of the former board of commissioners presented them for payment. The office force was kept busy making out checks all morning, and it is estimated that several thousand dollars was paid out.

The vouchers were held up when the new board of commissioners assumed office on account of a technicality. The payment of them was held to be a "moral obligation" by Prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Micklethwait.

Several of these vouchers are now being held by the commissioners pending investigation. President Thomas W. Watkins announced.

Among the vouchers being investigated are:

One presented by Frank Bower called.

SOCIETY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Huels, on Third street, is the scene of a family party this evening in celebration of their fiftieth wedding anniversary. An elegant dinner will be served at six o'clock, when covers will be laid for Mr. and Mrs. Huels, Miss Ottilia Huels, Mr. Charles Huels, Mr. Herman Huels, Jr., and two sons, all of Portsmouth, Mr. Albert Huels, of Brooklyn, N. Y., Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Bickel, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and a few friends. The table was beautifully decorated in yellow, the color being appropriate to the golden anniversary. Fifty years ago today, 1865, Mr. Herman Huels and Miss Pauline Duerber were married in Chillicothe and soon after came to Portsmouth to reside. Mr. Huels has been in the dyeing and cleaning business for many years. He has been located in his home-place on Third street for the past forty-six years. Mr. and Mrs. Huels are a fine couple and are one of the most highly respected of the old German families in this city. Their many friends have showered them with flowers, post-cards, telegrams and they have also received many handsome remembrances from their relatives. This has been a happy day for this venerable couple, surrounded by their children and grandchildren. May they live to celebrate many more happy anniversaries is the wish of their hosts of friends.

WOMAN SO WEAK COULD NOT SLEEP

Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

North Oxford, Mass.—"I had lost three children and I was all run down and so weak I could not sleep at night. My eyesight would leave me and everything I ate upset my stomach. I was very nervous and if I would start to sleep I would have to stop and lie down before I could finish. I was looking over the paper one day and read of a woman who felt as I did and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I took it too. Now I am proud to tell you I am feeling fine and have given birth to a baby boy. He is my 'Pinkham' baby. I keep a bottle of Compound in my house always."

Mrs. PETER MARCO, Box 64, North Oxford, Mass.

Sleeplessness, indigestion, weakness, and nervousness are symptoms which indicate a lowered vitality of the female organism, and the tonic, strengthening properties of the good old-fashioned roots and herbs, contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, are just what is needed by every woman who is in Mrs. Marco's condition.

For free advice in regard to any annoying symptom write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

Will Mrs. E. R. Malcomb, who recently furnished the Post with a sample of forget-me-not lace please tell the readers of this column how it is made.

Dear Miss Wise—I am interested in a certain matrimonial affair so I am coming to you for a little information. One of our Portsmouth charming ladies employed in a certain office and a western gentleman were married about four weeks ago. I feel sure they were married for I have reasons to know. What I most want to find out is, were they married here, or some other city. If they were married here it's to be on the quiet for I did not see any account of license published or the wedding. You may not know who I refer to but as it seems to be a topic conversed by many since it happened, maybe some reader who reads this might help furnish the information so much desired.

Good Pictures and Good Music at the Popular Lyric All This Week

Mae Murray in "The Dream Girl," the Paramount feature at the Lyric tonight is a genuine romantic masterpiece, the kind of picture that sends you away with a heart full of tenderness and a mind full of sweet dreamings. Don't miss this picture tonight. The music will also be a treat. Davidson's Trio is back on the job and full of fresh inspiration and pep.

Tomorrow's Paramount is another exceptional picture. Pauline Frederick in a dramatization of Robert Hichens' celebrated book and play "Bella Donna." In the role of the London adventuress Miss Frederick is wonderful. Gail Kane, June Eldridge and Gladstone James head the all-star cast in the big Brady feature "Paying the Price" which comes in the Lyric Wednesday and remember there will be two chapters (four reels) of Billie Burke shown on Thursday.

Dorothy Gish in "The Little School Ma'am," Columbia Tonight.

The story of Nan Cartwright, a southern girl who becomes a school teacher in a small western town, is told in "The Little School Ma'am," the new Triangle play starring Dorothy Gish, which is to be seen at the Columbia tonight.

There is only one grade in the school which contains children of all ages and sizes. The little teacher mothers them all. Out side of school hours, however, she is very lonely. Her life is made still more unhappy by malicious gossip who resent her "southern airs," and spend their time spying upon her in the little boarding house where she lives.

One evening she goes alone to the brook, to have a good cry. There she is found by Howard, a young playwright from her native state who is visiting in the village. He attempts to offer her his sympathy, and she accepts him as a friend. Before long there is more than a friendship, and Howard becomes a frequent visitor at the schoolhouse, where the children take a great fancy to him. Of course the scandal mongers soon find in Howard's calls at the school an opportunity to say unkind things about the girl.

For a time she pays no heed,

TANLAC'S GOOD NAME VALUABLE

Thousands of Men and Women Are Daily Testifying to Merits.

A good reputation is the best thing in life, and a good reputation is worth as much to a medicine as it is to an individual. The truth of this is clearly brought out by the fact that business men, professional men, artists, and women in all walks of life whose common, practical judgment guides them in all acts and conclusions, are daily testifying to the merits of Tanlac.

"Tanlac" has become a household word. Its success is unprecedented and its fame is based very solidly on its accomplishments in nearly two millions of homes. Tanlac is nature's own remedy. It is purely a vegetable compound, made from roots, herbs, flowers and barks. The ingredients for this wonderful remedy are gathered in the remotest parts of the world. From the far north woods in Argentina, below the equator; in Russian Asia, the Alps, Pyrenees, on the sunny shores of Italy. From Brazil, Sumatra, Java, the West Indies, and the slopes of our town timber-topped Rocky Mountains come the ingredients that, under the personal direction of the noted chemist, Joseph Von Trimbach, are compounded into Tanlac.

Tanlac acts like magic against stomach trouble, gas fermentation, flatulence, bloating, and heavy distension of the bowels. It attacks poisons in the blood, cures diseased conditions of the liver and kidneys and restores them to normal condition.

Tanlac works wonders where men and women suffer from general troubles, which may be caused by any one of the following symptoms: coughing of mucus, offensive breath, dizziness, loss of flesh, ringing in the head or ears, headaches, pains in the side or stomach, regions, indigestion, bloating of the stomach, constipation, or dyspepsia.

Tanlac is an invigorant, appetizer, tonic and builder of tissues. It cleanses the entire system of poisons and vitalizes the blood and brings back color to the cheeks and sparkle to the eyes.

Tanlac is now being especially advertised in Portsmouth at Fish and Streich's Pharmacy where the Tanlac Man daily explains its merits to hundreds of men and women.

Business Is Good

Harry Gilliam, who travels for a Pittsburgh shoe firm, is here to spend a few days. He reports good business in his territory.

Keeping up with the procession is not enough for the General—he must lead. And lead he does—in volume, quality and price. The General's leadership is due to the enormous resources at his command—the five m's of modern manufacturing—men, money, mills, machinery and materials.

Men who have learned the roofing business through years of practical experience are in charge of every department of the business. Men who have made a life study of the blending of asphalts comprise the General's Board of Expert Chemists.

Money—the means to promote efficiency, increase output, reduce cost, prevent waste—is at the General's call in abundance.

Mills—the largest roofing mills in the world are the General's. They are advantageously located at points where cost of fuel, access to raw materials and quick distribution of finished products are most favorable.

Machinery—the most modern known to the roofing business, equips each of the General's enormous mills. Not a dollar is left unspent which would speed up production, increase quality or lower costs.

Materials—the food of the mills—is bought by the General in enormous quantities, and stored. This means the pick of the market and favorable buying, and no loss from idle machinery, due to shortage of materials.

Thus the success of CERTAIN-TEED Roofing is no secret, but is due to a combination of resources and experience without parallel in the roofing business.

CERTAIN-TEED is made of the best quality roofing felt, thoroughly saturated with a scientific blend of soft asphalts, the formula of the General's board of expert chemists. It is then coated with a blend of harder asphalts, which keeps the inner saturation soft and prevents the drying-out so destructive to the ordinary roof.

CERTAIN-TEED is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3). Experience proves that it lasts longer.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls; also in slate-surfaced shingles. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roof, from skyscraper to small residence or out-building.

CERTAIN-TEED is sold by responsible dealers all over the world, at reasonable prices. Investigate it before you decide on any type of roof.

To Avoid Dandruff

You do not want a slow treatment when hair is falling and the dandruff germ is killing the hair roots. Delay means no hair. Get at any drug store, a bottle of Zemo for 25c or $1.00 for extra large sizes. Use as directed, for it does the work quickly. It kills the dandruff germ, nourishes the hair roots and immediately stops itching scalp. It is sure and safe. It does not dry, it is easy to use and will not stain. Soap and shampoos are harmful, as they contain alkali. The best thing to use is Zemo, for it is pure and also inexpensive.

I thought I was going into consumption, my friends thought so. When those spells would come on I would feel like I was going to die, my hands and feet would get cold... This condition lasted four months. Then I began to take CARDUI. Before I had taken one bottle I felt I would never have another of those spells but I kept on until I had taken two bottles because I wanted to be completely cured. # Malcolm Bagby, C. & O. Conductor Hit By Train, Injuries Fatal

Was Run Down By Light Extra At Garrison, Ky., Dies In Hospital Here

Malcolm Bagby, aged 42 years, skull proved the fatal blow, he died about 7:40 o'clock.

The unfortunate man's wife, Mrs. Margaret Collins Bagby, and their only child, Isabel, aged 4 years, came to Portsmouth on a noon train. Mrs. Bagby arranged to have the body shipped to Covington Monday afternoon and the funeral will take place there Tuesday afternoon with burial in St. Mary's cemetery.

Mr. Bagby was born at St. Paul, Ky., a son of the late William Bagby. He was reared on a farm, but after growing to manhood took up railroading, first entering the service of the N. & W. railway here as a brakeman. For the past twelve years he had been employed on the C. & O., and was promoted to conductor three years ago. He was regarded as one of the most industrious, faithful, and efficient men on the Cincinnati division. He was a member of both the Conductors' and Brakemen Brotherhoods.

Mr. Bagby had been married for six years and his home life was of the very happiest. Besides his mother, who is almost prostrated from the shock, and brother here, he is survived by two other brothers, Senator Thomas Bagby, of Garrison, and Arthur P. Bagby, of Slouman's Station. The latter was also formerly a railroad switchman and recovered from even worse injuries in an accident at Chicago six years ago, when he was crushed internally. He is now engaged in farming. The last fatality in the family was three years ago when another brother, Louis Bagby, accidentally shot and killed himself with a gun at the family home in St. Paul.

DISAGREE AS TO THE NUMBER OF DEAD DOGS, "DOC" MAY QUIT

City officials Saturday were trying to appease Jas. Goodpaster, who was threatening to throw up his job as city scavenger.

"Doc," as Mr. Goodpaster is more familiarly known, is admittedly a reliable and industrious public servant but there appears to have developed a discrepancy in the number of dead dogs he has carted away of late. His figures in other words do not tally with those of the Portsmouth Chemical Company recording the amount of carcasses received. Doc claims, however, that quite frequently he deposits dead dogs at the plant early in the morning before any of the employees report for duty and sometimes in evenings after they have gone home from work. The officials are urging him to continue on duty, they promising meanwhile to investigate.

Jitneys Will Have Chance At Depot

The police officials have decided to let down the bars and permit "jitneys" to share space with taxi cabs at the N. & W. depot. They will be permitted to try for positions in the best way they can. The cause of the officials' decision, they say, is that the Independent Taxi Cab Company, which has had exclusive use of the space, has not been maintaining regular service. They cite two days in the past week on which no taxis were on the ground at train time. Two ladies alighted from a passenger train Sunday afternoon and were anxious to secure a taxi. None was in sight. Sergeant John Smith volunteered to find one for them. He went over to the Independent company's garage but found that all cabs had been hired out for the afternoon.

The rigid routine of the military encampment gave the boys a splendid training.

Company K marched into first place on regimental drill and took several honors on the rifle ranges.

Regret Is Expressed Over Tragic Death Meted Out To Jas. Arthurs

Expressions of regret were heard on all sides Saturday evening when it was learned that popular "Jim" Arthurs, aged 35, of 917 Fourth street, had met a tragic death, the result of falling beneath the wheels of a westbound N. & W. freight train, death coming to him in front of the Ironton House in Ironton, at 3:10 Saturday afternoon.

Arthurs, who was a very industrious man, had for 12 years been employed by Contractor Henry Hossman, of this city. He was on his way home when death was meted out to him. As he attempted to board the N. & W. train he missed the step of one of the cars, and falling beneath the wheels he was literally ground to pieces. The body was prepared for burial by Undertakers Bingham and Jones, of Ironton and was shipped here Sunday morning and removed to the home of the dead man's mother, Mrs. Emma Arthurs, of 817 Fourth street.

Police Investigate A Near-Accident

Police Sergeant John Smith is investigating a near accident that occurred at Fourth and Chillicothe streets, Sunday noon, in an effort to fix the responsibility.

John W. Bickham, of No. 1531 Oakland avenue, who is employed as paymaster at the Excelsior shoe factory, jumped squarely in front of a northbound Hilltop street car to save himself from being run down by a taxi-cab going in the same direction. Only the prompt action of Motor-man George Blake in applying the brakes kept the street car from striking Bickham, who, believing he was to be hurt, grabbed hold of the front of the car.

One of a party of three women who had been standing on the corner and stepped from the curb, saved herself from being run over by the taxi by throwing herself against a lamp-post, the machine just grazing her. The taxi continued on its way, turning east on Gallia street. Charles Holmes, of Dancy avenue, was also on the corner at the time and may be summoned as a witness.

Sergeant Smith visited the Independent Taxi Cab Company's garage but all of the drivers there denied knowledge of the affair. A young man accused Mayor Kaps on the street Monday morning and told him he was the driver of the taxi. He was told to report this evening.

Joy Riders Chased; Finally Captured

City and county officials had an exciting chase Sunday after a party of "joy riders" the Ashland, Ky., authorities asked them to apprehend. Word came to police headquarters about 3 p. m. from Chief Young, of Ashland, that he and a couple of officers were on Hanging Rock on the trail of two men, G. B. Clark and William Townsend, and three women. Clark, they said, was wanted for doing some shooting at Ashland. He was said to be a bad actor. They had crossed into Ohio in a Ford touring car which had a big American flag spread over the back of the top, which was down. All were said to be drinking.

TONE UP YOUR STOMACH

There is no tonic for the stomach that is not a tonic for every other part of the body. But the stomach depends, as does every other organ, on the blood for its energy.

The Young Old Man.
Probably nothing in the world is as wholesome as seeing an old man thinking himself young. Truly, a man is only as old as he thinks. Sometimes, though, this tendency amounts to almost a frenzy and becomes wholly irreconcilable and beyond all reason.

A case in point is emphasized in a postal card received by the circulation department from an eighty-three-year-old subscriber down state: "Dear Sir:—Why can't you send me the sporting extra instead of this 5 o'clock regular?"

Matter and Force.
Science has demonstrated the fact that matter and force are indestructible. To the sum total of the matter and energy of the universe nothing has ever been added, and from them nothing has ever been subtracted. Things are perpetually changing from one form into another—from one form of matter to another form of matter, from one form of force to another form of force—but amid the eternal transformation nothing is created, nothing annihilated.—New York American.

NEW YORK UNIONS VOTING ON SYMPATHETIC STRIKE

BRITISH ON THE OFFENSIVE IN MACEDONIA

CITIZENS TURN TO CITY GOVERNMENT SEEKING RELIEF

New York, Sept. 11.—All members of trade unions in New York, Yonkers, Mount Vernon, New Rochelle and other nearby points, found themselves today active factors in the dispute between the Interborough Rapid Transit company and its employees. The various individual labor organizations in these cities served by the Interborough and its subsidiary companies received the appeal drafted by the Central Labor bodies last night requesting a sympathetic strike of all organized wage earners in their jurisdiction in "support of the contention of the street railway men for the right to organize."

Since the response to this appeal must be decided by vote of members, several days must elapse before its effect will be known. A central labor committee has been organized, however, and daily meetings will be held to direct a sympathetic general strike in case it is called. Opinions were expressed today that most of the unions appealed to would defer action in the hope that such a radical step might be averted. Labor leaders declared, however, that strikes might be called without delay in trades directly affecting the operation of street cars such as the longshoremen who handle coal barges and the engineers who work in the power houses.

While the elevated and subway lines continued running today without apparent interruption, the strike on the surface lines has spread rapidly. Union officials assert that 11,000 men are on strike. Not a car wheel turned all day Sunday in Yonkers, Mount Vernon and New Rochelle, and every surface car stopped running last night in Manhattan and the Bronx also after these two boroughs had received an extremely limited service during the day.

The seriousness of the situation has caused citizens to turn for relief to the municipal government. It is expected that the public service commission which is investigating the strike would make a report today placing the responsibility for the situation.

President Shonts, of the Interborough, declared that the action of the central labor organizations last night proved his contention that the strike involves the basic principle of trade unionism. In regard to the threat of a general strike, he said: "I cannot see that it will have any great effect on us."

OPEN CAMPAIGN TO LEARN IF BAKERS ARE GIVING SHORT WEIGHT

Chicago, Sept. 11.—Housewives of Chicago were today urged to weigh the bread they buy to assist the city department of weights and measures in exposing local bakers for violations of the anti-trust laws and the ordinance against short weights.

The request came from William E. Chert, in charge of this part of the department, who announced that he would have a corps of inspectors scattered over Chicago today to test the weights of loaves. The announcement by a leading baker's concern Saturday that he would be the first to enter into the weight of his five-pound loaf of bread was responsible for Mr. Chert's mission to expose bakers and his determination to learn for himself whether consumers were receiving what they paid for.

GREEKS APPARENTLY COMPLY WITH DEMANDS OF THE ALLIES

London, Sept. 11.—A Reuters Athens despatch says that Premier Zaimis had another lengthy conference with King Constantine on Sunday afternoon after which the cabinet met.

In regard to the shots fired in the neighborhood of the French legation, the despatch says, that the Allies' demands have apparently been fully accepted, although nothing has been officially announced. The closing of the club of the reservists' league, a step demanded by the entente, was begun Sunday evening.

Athens, Sunday, Sept. 10.—(Via London, Sept. 11)—King Constantine personally has accepted the demand of the entente allies that the reservists' league of which he is honorary president, be dissolved.

Paris, Sept. 11.—Additional details of the disturbances at the French legation in Greece on Saturday are forwarded by the Havas correspondent at Athens. He telegraphs that while the entente ministers were meeting at the legation a number of reservists forced an entrance shouting "Long live the king; down with the entente."

Four shots were fired. No one was injured. The reservists fled.

Nation-Wide Interest Centers In The Maine Election Held Today

Portland, Me., Sept. 11.—Voters of Maine to the number of 140,000 or more went to the polls today to elect a governor, two U. S. Senators, four representatives in congress, a state legislature and a state auditor. National issues have been brought to the fore and party leaders brought hundreds of speakers into the state, including former Justice Hughes, former vice president Fairbanks and members of President Wilson's cabinet to persuade voters to line up with or against the national executive and the majority in congress. Maine, however, is a normally Republican state and the Democratic leaders insisted that something more than a scant Republican victory would be required to constitute a Republican chance of winning the national administration while a Democratic victory, however small, would be accepted by them as an endorsement.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY

For several days past a cultured gentleman, Mr. Charles A. Brady by name, has been quietly interviewing Portsmouth citizens, his mission being to tell them of the work that is being done by the Lincoln Memorial University. You may not have heard of this university, but it is doing a great and a grand educational work. It is located at Cumberland Gap, Tennessee, and it is the college that has brought to the girls and boys of the Kentucky and Tennessee mountains their chance to rise above their surroundings, their chance to acquire an education that will fit them for life's battle on equal terms with boys and girls in more favored communities. General O. O. Howard was the father of the University and he named it in memory of Lincoln who had always taken a deep interest in the mountaineers. The college has been a success from the first so far as students are concerned. In fact there have always been more knocking for admission than could be accommodated. These students are the boys and girls who have to work their way through college. They come, some of them without a cent and they are given work on the farm or about the college to help them pay the tuition and their board which is about $125 a year. And those students work, work physically and literally "slave mentally."

A writer in Collier's recently told of a boy to whom the Dean had said when he applied:

"I'm sorry, my boy, I'd like to take you in, but we just haven't any place to put you."
"I didn't come down here to board," said the tall, slender youth. "I came here to get an education. I can sleep on the floor."
You can't turn that kind of a boy away. He won't be turned away. He wasn't turned away. He's waiting on table, working in the laundry, doing anything, everything.

"How do you like it here?" I asked him.
"Like it," he repeated with a curious smile. "Why, it's like home."
"What do you want to do?" I asked. "What is your ambition?"
"Why," he said in a confidential tone, "I want to do so much I don't dare to tell the people here. They'd think I was foolish. I'm a Southern boy," he said. "I love the South, and I want to be a writer. I want to tell the stories that I know of these people in the mountains. When I'm through here I want to go to Charlottesville, because the University of Virginia is an old Southern college. I want to know its history. I want to get the culture that it gives. Then I want to go north to Harvard where they train men to write. I want to climb up the ladder of culture. I don't dare tell 'em here, but that's what I'm going to do."

We submit that an institution that has such a clientele is one worth while, is worthy of consideration by any man or woman who feel that they can afford to spare a little money to help a good cause along.

THE MAINE ELECTION

Do you remember in 1884 when Ohio was an "October state" and how from every tree and barn and hill board hung big posters saying "Maine 20,000, Ohio next. Republicans do your duty." Well, Maine votes again tomorrow, having her state election, and again she is in the map as an indicator of the result in November. The fight has been a great one, hundreds of campaign orators of the first magnitude having stumped the state. We judge that the Democrats have really little hope of carrying the state, Maine does not often go Democratic. It is mainly a question of the size of the Republican majority that will tell the story to those who figure on the trend of things. If Maine gives a Republican majority of from 20,000 up, it will be hailed as a favorable sign to Republicans. If it should be less than 20,000 the Democrats will be setting up claims, while if Republicans should have around 10,000 or less Democrats will claim the national battle is all over but the shouting. Personally we don't take much stock in the Maine election prognostications. It is a long time yet until election day, events in the world are moving swiftly and something may turn up over night that will make Wilson's election certain or insure his defeat. With the world aflame, it seems to us that, in any event, it is a bad year for Maine as an indicator.

An overwhelming majority of Portsmouth people, in fact almost every one in town wants the street fairly licensed and regulated. They want a license sufficiently high that the fly-up-nights, the down and outers which consist of a few half baked shows gathered together as a cloak for gamblers, sure-thing men, burglars and immorality of the grossest character, are barred from the city. Council and the mayor have been playing hide and seek on the ordinance as have other councils and other mayors. Now what are they going to do on the show down? We await the result with interest.

Anyway, whichever way Maine goes at the election tomorrow, the loser will be sure to set up the alibi that the result is absolutely without significance so far as the November result is concerned.

Here is an item on education, telling us that a college education helps a man do whatever it is he chances to be doing, if anything, much better than an uneducated man. And that is very true. The fall after we graduated from Danvers College we could cut more corn and tie the shocks and do it easier than we could before we got our sheepskin.—Liberty Press.

BED TIME TALES

By CLARA INGRAM JUDSON

A Well-Earned Rest

MAYBE YOU THINK that after the right over toward Crooked Creek," Short-tail Beavers were announced said he, "and I'll show you the as new members of the Order of place where you and your family Wiggleleskskewas there was more may sleep." Did you ever hear of feasting and rejoicing and good such good luck? Father Beaver comes for all. But if you think what that pleased he could hardly that, you've forgotten something help thanking Policeman Billy very important—very, very important. You've forgotten the daylight! Yes, sir! One night doesn't last forever—not even in the land of the Wiggleleskskewas.

Hardly had the great big beaver announced that the newcomers were to be called Short-tail Beavers, before Policeman Billy noticed a faint streak of light along the eastern sky. And, of course, he immediately gave a warning. That was part of his job, for beavers are most particular about being out in the daytime, unless they are traveling or have business.

Such a hurry and a scurry as there was then! Some ran down to the pool to get a drink; some scrambled for a bit to eat; and some, who had eaten plenty early in the evening, ambled straight for their hiding-places. To tell the truth, they were all so tired from the evening's fun that they were quite willing to have daytime send them to bed!

Till in no time at all everyone didn't, because Policeman Billy ran but the Short-tail family and Policeman Billy had disappeared.

"Now," said Policeman Billy, "what next?" "Yes," replied Father Beaver, "what next?" Of course Father Beaver knew well enough what he wanted to do—he wanted to find a nice, safe place close by the water's edge, where he and his little family could sleep, for they surely were tired. But so many strange things had happened that he hardly knew what to think. And he felt sure that it was best to let Policeman Billy do the suggesting of what should be done.

Luckily, Policeman Billy suggested the very thing that Father Beaver wanted to do. "Follow me right then and there, but he didn't, because Policeman Billy ran on so far ahead.

All four of the beavers followed Policeman Billy's lead and he took them over by the creek and found them the nicest little nook, hidden by the tall rushes, where they could well enough what he wanted to do choose. And then he bowed and—she wanted to find a nice, safe place close by the water's edge, where he and his little family could sleep, for they surely were tired. ## A Word and A Smile

Don't hurry through life with a frown on your face, And never a moment to spare, For the word and the smile that is always worth while In a world full of trouble and care.

There are others with burdens as heavy as yours, Hearts weary with weeping and pain That yearn to hear just a word of good cheer, Will you let them be pleading in vain?

Don't feel that misfortune has singled you out And made you her own special prey For you may be sure there's no home so secure But that trouble will enter some way.

There is sunshine for all in this work-a-day world, But you'll have to go after your share, And you'll miss it, of course, if you're hurried and cross, With never a moment to spare.

And if you have sunshine and love in your home, If pleasure and plenty abound, Don't hoard up your store, you'll enjoy it the more If you scatter a little around.

For the light of your smile can be seen from afar And heaven records its full worth; Though you whisper your word, yet its echo be heard To the farthest ends of the earth. —K. J. Joseph.

Regret Is Expressed Over Tragic Death Meted Out To Jas. Arthurs

Expressions of regret were heard on all sides Saturday evening when it was learned that popular "Jin" Arthur, aged 35, of 517 Fourth street, had met a tragic death, the result of falling beneath the wheels of a westbound N. & W. freight train, death coming to him in front of the Ironton House in Ironton, at 3:10 Saturday afternoon.

Arthur, who was a very industrious man, had for 12 years been employed by Contractor Henry Hoemann, of this city. He was on his way home when death was meted out to him. As he attempted to board the N. & W. train he missed the step of one of the cars, and falling beneath the wheels he was literally ground to pieces. The body was prepared for burial by Undertakers Bingman and Jones, of Ironton and was shipped here Sunday morning and removed to the home of the dead man's mother, Mrs. Emma Arthur, of 817 Fourth street.

WILSON HURRIES TO THE BEDSIDE OF HIS STRICKEN SISTER

Long Branch, Sept. 11.—Cancelling all engagements, President Wilson left here early today to go in the bedside of his sister, Mrs. A. E. Howe, who is critically ill at her home in New London, Conn. The president motored to New York and will finish the trip by train.

The president arose before 7 o'clock after having spent a restless night. He appeared greatly concerned over his sister's illness. The departure of the president did not delay the opening today of the summer executive offices at Ashbury Park by a staff of White House clerks.

WITH THE SICK

Three typhoid fever patients were removed from one cottage in Red Row on Mill street to Hempstead hospital by Duehler's ambulance Saturday evening. They were John and Clarence Meadows and sister, Mrs. Homer Webb. The latter's condition is serious.

Mrs. Emily Lucas, colored, of Ninth street, is steadily improving after a serious illness.

City and county officials had an exciting chase Sunday after a party of "joy riders" the Ashland, Ky., authorities asked them to apprehend. Word came to police headquarters about 3 p. m. from Chief Rice, of Ashland, that he and a couple of officers were at Hanging Rock on the trail of two men, G. B. Clark and William Townsend, and three women. Clark, they said, was wanted for doing some shooting at Ashland. He was said to be a bad actor. They had crossed into Ohio in a Ford touring car which had a big American flag spread over the back of the top, which was down. All were said to be drinking.

Chief Clark, Police Clerk Johnson, Sheriff Smith and Deputy Sheriff Arthur left at once in the sheriff's car for New Boston and took up position in the Narrows just beyond the Luke bridge. The Ford car failed to appear, and when the Ashland officers arrived and reported having seen nothing of the parties wanted, it was concluded that they probably had selected the road from Sciotoville to Harrisonville. The sheriff and party and the Ashland officers then drove out Mann's Run to Harrisonville. From the latter village they started down the road towards Sciotoville, but when Dr. J. W. York, whom they met, told them they would be unable to get through with their big ears, they turned back to New Boston. The Ashland officers lingered about New Boston for some time before beginning the return trip home. About 10:30 Sunday night Sergeant Jack Leeds received a message at police headquarters from Chief Rice stating he had captured the whole party at Wheelersburg, adding that he was going right back with them.

Sir Thomas Calvert, the sage of Summit Lawn, was a visitor to The Times office bright and early Monday morning, proudly exhibiting some of his handiwork. He had a picture of the old water mill at Euxon Mills, the frame of which was made of brass-joined corn-cobs, also a pipe finished along the same lines. He had some other specimens of that kind of work which he will display along with his famous trunk made of some sixty varieties of wood, at the Corner Book Store during the Kern Carnival.

DISAGREE AS TO THE NUMBER OF DEAD DOGS. "DOC" MAY QUIT

City officials Saturday were trying to appease Jas. Goodpaster, who was threatening to throw up his job as city scavenger.

"Doc", as Mr. Goodpaster is more familiarly known, is admittedly a reliable and industrious public servant but there appears to have developed a discrepancy in the number of dead dogs he has carted away of late. His figures in other words do not tally with those of the Portsmouth Chemical Company recording the amount of carcasses received. Doc claims, however, that quite frequently he deposits dead dogs at the plant early in the morning before any of the employees report for duty and sometimes in evenings after they have gone home from work. The officials are urging him to continue on duty, they promising meanwhile to investigate.

BROTHERHOOD MEETS TUESDAY

Opens Repair Shop

Gus Brunner has opened an automobile garage and repair shop in the former Andy Reinhold blacksmith shop stand on Fifth street, between Chillicothe and Washington streets. He is one of the best all-around auto repair men in the city and should do well in his new business venture. Until recently he was in charge of Stanley Pritchard's garage and is a first-class mechanic.

CLAIMS RAISE IS "PURELY ILLEGAL"

"Upon the receipt of a deluge of complaints from local citizens Monday concerning the announcement of several Portsmouth and New Boston bakers that the price of bread and cakes would be advanced in price after a certain date," Prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Micklethwait stated that "it is purely illegal and the statutes of Ohio make it a penal offense, subject to a heavy fine and a penitentiary sentence."

Should the advance be made effective, the prosecutor said that an investigation would be made by the grand jury which will be called sometime this month.

The attention of the prosecutor was called to a signed advertisement appearing in The Times in which it was stated that the price of bread and cakes would be advanced. This constitutes a conspiracy, the prosecutor holds under the statutes, and a violation will be prosecuted.

The following statement was made by Prosecutor Micklethwait:

"A great number of complaints have come to me in regard to the action of the bakers raising the price of bread. If the bakers are not making a profit, as they claim they are not, then it is their individual right to raise the price of bread as individuals, but not to meet as an association and raise, or attempt to raise, the price of bread and by going together stifle competition.

"It will be recalled a few years ago the milk men here were indicted and tried before the local common pleas court, but in that case the action failed because the state could not prove that they had agreed together to raise the price of milk, but had taken such action individually.

"As I understand it the bakers at a meeting held at a certain local bakery one day last week, agreed that on Monday, September 11th, certain bread that heretofore sold at five cents a loaf, would be retailed at six cents and in pursuance of this agreement, a signed statement or advertisement was asserted in the paper, stating that on this particular date they would raise the price of certain bread. This, as I understand it, is in clear violation of the anti-trust laws of this state, and I shall call the attention of the court to the matter and ask Judge Thomas to give a special charge to the grand jury covering this matter.

The statutes upon which the prosecutor bases his opinion are: Section 6391 of the General Code, is as follows:

"A trust is a combination of capital, skill or acts by two or more persons, firms, partnerships, corporations or associations of persons, for any or all of the following purposes:

"To make, enter into, or carry out contracts, obligations or agreements of any kind or description by which they bind or have bound themselves not to sell • • • a commodity, or an article of trade • • •, below a common standard, figure or fixed value, • • • a commodity, as such directly or indirectly to preclude a free and unrestricted competition among themselves, purchasers or consumers in the sale • • • of such article or commodity, • • • • • Such trust as is defined herein is unlawful, against public policy and void.

Section 6396 of the chapter pro-

ades, . . . . ., that when the violation of the provisions of this chapter consists of a combination to control the price or supply, or to prevent competition in the sale of bread, butter, eggs, flour, meat or vegetables or any one of said articles, the person or persons thus engaged shall upon conviction thereof be fined in any sum not less than five hundred dollars and imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years. Each day's violation of any of the provisions of this chapter shall constitute a separate offense.

This law was enacted by the legislature on May 3, 1913.
